2. In all three rounds solo dancers perform their two variations in one competition night.
3. According the George Balanchine Trust the choreography of George Balanchine is not permitted to be used for competitions. It was his wish during the course of his life, which the George Balanchine Trust continues to honor.

SECOND ROUND

In the Second Round all competitors perform two dances, not performed in the First Round, in one night:

- a) a pas de deux (adagio, variation and coda) or two variations (at competitor's choice) from the classical ballet repertoire, created by the end of the 19th century;
- b) a contemporary work of the competitor's choice choreographed in the last five years, i.e. after July 15th, 2015, not exceeding 6 minutes.

THIRD ROUND

All competitors perform two dances, not performed in the First and Second Rounds, in one night:

- a) a pas de deux (adagio, variation and coda) or two variations (at competitor's choice) from the classical ballet repertoire, created after the end of the 19th century;
- b) a contemporary work of the competitor's choice choreographed in the last ten years, i.e. after July 15th, 2010, not exceeding 6 minutes.

Other conditions:

ФОНДАЦИЯ МЕЖДУНАРОДЕН БАЛЕТЕН КОНКУРС - ВАРНА

FONDATION CONCOURS INTERNATIONAL DE BALLET, VARNA - BULGARIA
FOUNDATION INTERNATIONAL BALLET COMPETITION, VARNA - BULGARIA

1. Besides the three rounds the Competition programme includes two concerts:

- Gala Concert of the laureates of the 29th IBC-Varna, awarding of the prizes and closing of the Competition;
- Super Gala Concert "Meeting of Generations".

In the gala the dancers shall perform the programme selected by the Organizer and for no fee.

2. The competitors take part in the Competition with their own ballet costumes, rehearsal ones, toes and slippers. The Organizer is not providing wig-makers, make-up artists or wardrobe keepers.

3. COMPETITORS' PROGRAMME SELECTION

3.1. Competitors must perform different dances in the three Competition rounds.

3.2. The Jury will evaluate the competitors at their choice of repertoire as well, taking into consideration the variety of its means of expression as a prerequisite for the manifestation of the dancers' performance skills.

3.3. The duration of the pas de deux from the classical repertoire should not exceed 12 minutes.

3.4. Contemporary choreography covers a broad spectrum of subjects and reflects the modern man's views and understanding of the world. It is connected with full or partial denial of the classical dance system and its replacement with different modern dance systems, jazz-dance, free plastique, etc. or complex combinations of classical dance elements with other dance systems including (besides the ones mentioned above) elements of folk dances, ball dances, pantomime, sport and acrobatic movements, etc. The principle difference between classical and contemporary choreography lies in the idea, the concept, the form (dance system) and the contents of the work.

3.5. There may not be more than 5 changes in the lighting of the contemporary choreography works.

3.6. The duration of contemporary choreography works in the Second and Third Rounds should not exceed 6 minutes.

3.7. Not more than three dancers are allowed to take part in a dance performance.

3.8. Where the beginning of a contemporary piece is without music, a representative of the competitor must be with the director during the Competition performances and the Galas.

4. MUSICAL ACCOMPANIMENT

4.1. For the sound track of their programme competitors should use high quality sound-recordings, USB flash drive or CD media, only of the original orchestra performance of the respective work. Competitors should present these sound-recordings at the Secretariat of the Competition Organizer when registering.

ФОНДАЦИЯ МЕЖДУНАРОДЕН БАЛЕТЕН КОНКУРС - ВАРНА

FOUNDATION INTERNATIONAL BALLET COMPETITION, VARNA - BULGARIA

4.2. The audio material, necessary for all competitors' performances, shall comply with the following technical requirements:

- a) supported audio formats: mp3 with bitrate greater than or equal to 128 Kbps; wav with 16 bit and 44,1 kHz sampling frequency;*
- b) all audio materials shall be presented either on USB flash drive or CD media;*
- c) audio tacks shall have SNR>65dB (signal to noise ratio greater than 65 decibel);*
- d) no additional compression or other altering of the original dynamics of the piece are allowed;*
- e) all musical pieces shall not contain any audible defects such as clicks, noise, wow, flutter, etc.*

4.3. Each piece should be recorded separately on a CD media or USB flash drive . The name of the competitor, the name of the respective work and in which of the rounds it will be performed should be clearly written in the name of each file on the USB flash drive or the CD media .

4.4. For rehearsals Competitors shall themselves provide the sound equipment they might need.

5. DISQUALIFICATION

The International Jury can disqualify by an open vote of 2/3 majority participants who:

5.1. Do not perform the generally known - conventional - version of the classical choreography works;

5.2. Do not use audio records of the original orchestra performance of the respective classical dance;

5.3. Use audio recordings of poor quality and have not met the requirements of item 4 - Musical Accompaniment;

5.4. Whose programme does not comply with the requirements of the previous item 2 and 3 – Obligatory Competition Repertoire and Competitors' Programme Selection;

5.5. Perform a contemporary choreography dance whose duration exceeds the stipulated in these Regulations one by more than 45 seconds.

6. JURY

6.1. Competitors shall be judged by an International Jury, which will include world-famous ballet art figures.

6.2. In its work the Jury shall be guided by Regulations approved by the Organizer.

6.3. The decisions of the Jury shall be final and not subject to appeal or corrections.

7. SCORE

7.1. The Jury shall judge the competitors on a 25 point system. Full computerization of voting is ensured through a special computer system. The members of the International jury enter their marks in the computer immediately after the performance of each dancer. The scoring and judgement shall be done under special Regulations, approved by the Organizer's Management Board, individually, separately for both men and women and for the two age groups regardless whether they perform as soloists or in couples.

7.2. When competitors participate with two classical variations, the International Jury shall give one single score for both variations.

7.3. The score in the Second and the Third Rounds, when competitors perform two dances - classical and contemporary choreography, shall be formed by the arithmetic mean of the Jury's assessment for both performances.

7.4. During the discussions for granting the awards the International Jury will take into account the overall competitors' presentation and the arithmetic mean of the total points received in the three rounds.
